

MISSISSIPPI PUBLIC EMPLOYEES CREDIT UNION PRIVACY NOTICE

Rev 11/10

FACTS WHAT DOES MISSISSIPPI PUBLIC EMPLOYEES CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How? All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Mississippi Public Employees Credit Union chooses to share, and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Mississippi Public Employees Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	No	We do not share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	We do not share
For our affiliates to market to you	No	We do not share
For non-affiliates to market to you	No	We do not share

Questions? Call (601) 948-8191 or go to www.mspecu.org

What we do

How does Mississippi Public Employees Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Periodic testing of the information security systems, training of employees and adopting upgrades and enhancements are necessary to protect your information.

How does Mississippi Public Employees Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Mississippi Public Employees Credit Union does not have any affiliates at this time.

Non-Affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Mississippi Public Employees Credit union does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Our joint marketing partners include investment, insurance, and other financial service companies

Other important information

You can help protect your personal information. (1) DO NOT give anyone your PIN number, password, or account number. (2) DO NOT have your social security number printed on your checks. (3) Always shred your personal documents that contain your personal or financial information (4) Never respond to an email, phone call, or text message asking you to verify your personal information. Mississippi Public Employees Credit Union will never send you an email or text message asking you to verify account numbers, social security numbers, passwords, PIN number, etc. (5) Always keep your personal information in a safe secure place.